

Urgent Matters - How We Can Help

During these unprecedented, ever-changing times, matters often come with added time pressures. Our Corporate team is used to such challenges and would be happy to discuss any deals which you may need executed urgently. Our recent deals from 2019 and 2020 below were completed in short time frames, assuring you and your clients and contacts that we can meet even the tightest of deadlines.

- Acting on the sale of a group of companies providing marketing, sales and distribution services. Completion within 3 weeks of instruction.
- Acting on the acquisition of a London-based content preparation business for a global distribution firm. Completion within 3 days of instruction.
- Acting on a proposed management buyout of a holiday tour operator business. Completion ready within 5 days of instruction.
- Acting for a school on an accelerated sale process to a Chinese buyer. Completion within 3 weeks of the heads of terms being signed.
- Acting on a number of financings and re-financings for a private lender. Turnaround from instruction to completion typically less than 14 days.
- Acting on the share sale of a company in the retail sector. Despite the buyer requiring full warranties and disclosure, completion occurred within 4 days of instruction.
- Acting on the sale of a property management business. Completion within 9 days of instruction.
- Acting for a leading technology firm on its re-acquisition of a former subsidiary to preserve continuity of services for its customers. Completion within 3 days of instruction due to steps having already been taken to wind down the target's business activities.
- Acting on the sale of an Australian software company to a UK AIM listed firm specialising in commercial space and technology. Completion within 2 weeks of instruction so as to coincide with the purchaser's capital raise.
- Acting on the acquisition of an independent school for a consolidator. The transaction was completely re-structured after funding was withdrawn due to COVID-19 issues. Exchange within 3 weeks of the transaction being restructured.
